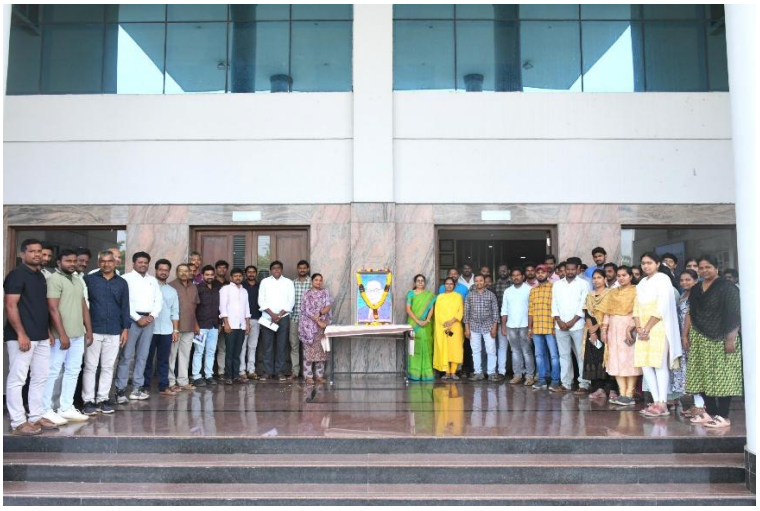
NIT Andhra Pradesh has observed Indian Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Divas, with great enthusiasm and a deep sense of national pride. The celebration, held on 26th November, aimed to honour the historic moment in 1949 when the Constituent Assembly adopted the Constitution of India, laying the foundation of our democratic republic.

The event commenced with a formal gathering in the Central Vista building of NIT Andhra Pradesh at 10 AM, where faculty members, staff, and students joined to commemorate the occasion. The programme began with a brief introduction on the significance of Constitution Day and the visionary leadership of Dr B. R. Ambedkar, the chief architect of the Indian Constitution. His immense contribution toward ensuring justice, equality, and liberty for every citizen was highlighted.



Celebration of Indian Constitution Day at NIT Andhra Pradesh

A special feature of the celebration was the collective reading of the Preamble, reaffirming the community's commitment to the core values of the nation—sovereignty, socialism, secularism, democracy, and republican principles. This unified reading created a sense of belongingness and reminded participants of their responsibilities as citizens and as members of the academic community.

Collective reading of the Preamble

Following this, distinguished faculty members delivered insightful talks on the evolution of the Indian Constitution, its salient features, and its continued relevance in the present socio-political landscape.

As a part of the celebration of Indian Constitution Day, 2025, NIT Andhra Pradesh planned to conduct a series of student-centric activities such as:

- Elocution and essay writing competitions on constitutional themes
- Quiz competitions focusing on the Constitution, national symbols, and democratic principles
- Interactive discussions on the role of youth in protecting constitutional values